Bellbrae Primary School offers students, staff and families a strong sense of community and belonging, enabling our students to develop and grow in a unique environment.

Bellbrae Primary School facebook page is open to parents, friends and teachers of the school. We follow the vision, philosophy and values of the school.

These values are respect for each other, responsibility, learning, teamwork, confidence, persistence and caring for ourselves and others. This site can be used to organise an inclusive event, respectfully express an opinion, post a question.

The aim of these guidelines is to make a positive and constructive experience for us all.

Complaints and disputes will be deleted as they are best directed to the school or parents and friends groups.

This site cannot be used for commercial gain.

We welcome every parent in the school to join this group. It is great source of information and we aim to keep it positive and constructive. It is a “closed group” open only to parents and friends of the school. To join simply

- Send an email to the Bellbrae Office bellbrae.ps@edumail.vic.gov.au and bassi.belinda.b@edumail.vic.gov.au requesting to join the facebook page.
